

40 Stories of HOPE - FREE books

In '40 Stories of HOPE' prisoners, prison chaplains and ex-offenders tell the stories of the hope that they have found, how forgiveness can be discovered in the most unlikely places, and how knowing Jesus changes lives forever.

Each faith-inspiring story is accompanied by verses from the Bible, prayers and a thought for the day. They can be read at any time by individuals or groups, inside and outside prison. Weekly discussion notes to inspire personal reflection and facilitate group discussion are also included, making the book ideal for reading during Lent. (The book has been chosen as the Lent book by Churches Together in Britain and Ireland).

"This is an extraordinary book – a book of hope and reconciliation, a book of transformation and journeys... There is no one, no life, no story that is beyond God's power to love and transform."

Justin Welby,
Archbishop Of Canterbury
